

ARCHES Language School / Speaking Test Aims / Levels A2-B1

Level A2

Module	Lesson	Sentence Structure	Communicative Function (Speaking Aim)
1 A New Life	Lesson 1: I was not born in the US.	Verb phrase be born and forms “was” and “were”	Talk about cultural and family roots. Provide information about personal experiences in the country of origin, such as: childhood memories, educational background, job positions, etc.
	Lesson 2: We left Mexico for a better future	Common Irregular Past Tense Forms
2 Past Events	Lesson 1: We cleaned and shopped.	Common Regular Past Tense Forms. Pronunciation of -ED verb forms.
	Lesson 2: I had a busy day!	Pronunciation of -ED verb forms in the sentence.
3 Future Actions	Lesson 1: It’ll be worth it!	Simple Future Tense. Forms “will” and “won’t”.	Express short-term plans, both personally and professionally.
	Lesson 2: I’m going to study!	Simple Future Tense. Forms “be going to” and “be gonna”

Level B1

Module	Lesson	Sentence Structure	Communicative Function (Speaking Aim)
1 Job Duties	Lesson 2: People who work full time have benefits.	Omission of pronouns “who” and “that” in the subordinate sentence.	Talk about job types, benefits and preferences. Express current job conditions and requirements.
2 Work Experience	Lesson 1: I’ve worked in a kitchen before.	Uses of Present Perfect Tense: Affirmative and Negative Forms.	Talk about previous work experience at different job positions held in the past.
3 Making Choices	Lesson 1: Which one is bigger?	Comparative Forms of Superiority: “more than, -er than”	Compare two places, situations, things, etc. Make choices.
	Lesson 2: What did you like the most?	Superlative Forms: “the most” and “the -est”.	Express preferences and opinions superlative forms.
6 Crime & Violations	Lesson 1: Someone had stolen my identity.	Common Uses of Past Perfect Tense	Give opinions about cybercrimes. Talk about personal experiences regarding cybersecurity.